Using this battery under the hood, to power trolling motors, or in electric golf carts will void your warranty. For these applications, we recommend using CCA-rated batteries. KickAss Batteries are not CCA-rated and should not be used to start vehicles.

The slimline range of AGM batteries offers a solution for tight spaces in your 4x4 vehicle, RV, or camper van. Easily install KickAss Slimline Batteries into areas that would be impossible for a standard-sized battery. Pair with the KickAss 170Ah Battery Tray for easy installation behind the rear seat of your dual cab truck.

With a KickAss Battery, you can easily power 12V lights, fridge/freezers, inverters, phones, laptops, and other 12/24V camping accessories. Say goodbye to power and electricity troubles while on the road. These batteries are also suitable for saltwater/marine applications, such as your boat.

Exceptional Deep Discharge Recovery High oxygen-recombination efficiency prevents electrolyte loss, ensuring exceptional deep discharge recovery performance. This means you won't need to replace the
