You might be interested in trying out an electric vehicle (EV) by leasing it for a couple of years. If so, pay special attention to this month's list of the best electric car deals, because more than half of them are terrific lease offers. If you are ready to buy, the rest of this list is made up of 0% APR deals. And many of the vehicles that have a lease special are also available with 0% APR. If you are considering getting an EV, when it comes to finding deals, this is a really good time to shop.

All prices are for the trim level on special and include destination charges. Prices do not include any state or federal incentives. Offers can vary by region, so check the manufacturer's website for availability and details before visiting a dealer.

Chevrolet's first foray into the all-electric truck world, the Silverado EV has a maximum range of 450 miles and a towing capacity of 10,000 pounds. This month's financing deal has a term of 36 months, and also includes no payments for 90 days when financing with GM Financial.

With this month's Ford F-150 Lightning deal, you get to choose some elements of your deal. In addition to 0% APR financing, you also get complimentary home charging and installation, or $2,000 cash back. In addition, if you have a Tesla or Ram, you can get even more cash back — up to $2,000 in the case of the Ram. The Lightning's range is as high as 320 miles, it can tow up to 10,000 pounds, and it has up to 580 horsepower. This deal has a term of 60 months.

The Hyundai Kona Electric is all new for 2024 with revamped looks, tech, and safety features, plus a roomier interior and larger cargo area than its predecessor. The long-range model nets 261 miles of range and 133 horsepower, while the Kona equipped with the larger 64.8-kWh battery has 201 horsepower. A 0.99% APR deal is also available.

The EV9 is Kia's all-electric 3-row midsize SUV, with up to 379 horsepower or up to 304 miles of range. It offers plenty of space for all seven aboard, as well as decent cargo space. The EV9 is capable of fast charging, too; it can charge from 10 to 80% in less than 25 minutes. This financing deal has a 72-month term.

The 2024 Ford Mustang Mach-E is an all-electric 2-row SUV that comes standard with helpful tech and impressive range — up to 312 miles. This past Best Buy Award winner is available with a terrific financing offer, which has a 72-month term. It also comes with $500 cash back, plus complimentary home charger and installation.

Sportier than the average EV, the Kia Niro hatch comes loaded with plenty of tech, safety, and convenience features. It boasts 201 horsepower and up to 253 miles of range. It's also capable of charging on a DC fast charger from 10% to 80% in less than 45 minutes. The Niro's modern, crisp interior has two 10.25-inch panoramic screens, and Harman Kardon premium audio is an available option. This lease deal is on the Wind trim level. You can also buy the Niro EV with 0% APR financing.

Sleek, low-slung, and eye-catching in all the right ways, the Kia EV6 can be practical or amazingly fast, depending on what you're looking for in an EV. This vehicle offers up to 310 miles of range or, in the 576-horsepower, hold-onto-your-hat GT-Line, can hit 60 mph in a little over 3.4 seconds. The EV6 is also capable of charging on a DC fast charger from 10% to 80% in 18 minutes. This lease deal applies to the Light Long Range RWD trim. A 0% APR deal is also available.

With up to 319 miles of range, an easy-to-reconfigure interior, and loads of safety and entertainment tech, the all-new Chevrolet Equinox EV is an impressive compact SUV. Longer and wider than its gas-powered Equinox sibling, the Equinox EV is roomy and modern. This month's deal on the front-wheel-drive 2LT is aimed at current lessees of 2010 or newer vehicles that are not GMs. A 0% APR deal is also available.

All-new for 2024, the Honda Prologue is a 5-passenger SUV with a range of up to 296 miles. The Prologue comes standard with an 11.3-inch touchscreen, wireless smartphone connectivity, a 10-way power driver's seat, and the Honda Sensing suite of advanced safety and driver assist features. You can charge the Prologue up to 80% in about half an hour. This month's deal is on the all-wheel-drive EX.

Winner of Kelley Blue Book's Electric Vehicle Best Buy Award two years in a row, the Hyundai Ioniq 5 has likable '80s retro looks and loads of modern tech. It's a spacious compact SUV with up to 303 miles of range and can charge on a DC fast charger from 10% to 80% percent in 18 minutes. The interior comes with a 12.3-inch touchscreen to control navigation, audio, and more. This month's deal is on the Ioniq 5 SE standard range. 0% APR financing is also available. Both the lease and financing deals also apply to the Ioniq 6 sedan.
