

Electric vehicles evs aaron

Electric vehicles evs aaron

AustinEV will have a booth at the Electrify Expo at COTA again this year Nov 9-10. Stop by and say hi! The Expo will be moving to Dallas nextyear, so grab your opportunity to check out a variety of EVs at COTA! If you want to grab a day pass at a discount, Austin Energy &hellip;

*** this event has been rescheduled due to significant chances of severe weather in the forecasts for its original date &#8211; please join us on 4/27! *** After 2 years, Earth Day ATX, Austin&#8217;s annual citywide event, will return to the Huston-Tillotson University campus on Saturday, April 27th from 12 to 5 pm. This family-friendly &hellip;

If you are in the Austin, TX area this weekend, you have a unique opportunity to test dozens if not hundreds of models of electric vehicles (cars, trucks, scooters, e-bikes and more) all in one spot this weekend out at the Circuit of the Americas. AustinEV will have a booth at the Electrify Expo and &hellip;

We&#8217;re happy to share Barks for Beers, a fundraiser for Divine Canines! Please join us in supporting the organization. It is a perfect opportunity to get out for some day trips in our EVs, visit our local breweries and support an organization that coordinates more than 140 active dog-handler teams who visit scores of partner &hellip;

Elaine Borseth, EVA President, will participate in a discussion about how fast the automotive industry is moving to meet consumer demand for EVs. Joining her in this panel discussion is Chay English, Policy Strategist/Managing Counsel at Ford Motor Co. and Katherine Garcia, Dir. of the Clean Transportation for All Campaign at Sierra Club. The Fast Company Grill discussion takes place on Monday, &hellip;

Elaine Borseth, the Electric Vehicle Association&#8217;s President, and EV road trip enthusiast will be in town to participate in SXSW | Revving up the Transition to Electric Vehicles and we&#8217;re having a meetup to greet her to Austin on Sunday the 12th at 6pm. We have a tablefor 20 reserved so we&#8217;ll be limiting RSVPs &hellip;

GM is starting an effort to highlight its EV Live EV education initiative to the public and to its dealers and a few of us from AustinEV were able to attend their inaugural presentation. This online platform, which was launched in the summer of 2022, lets you connect over the internet to a live specialist &hellip;

Aaron was interviewed by the Texas Standard about the Tax credits that were part of the Inflation Reduction Act. You can listen to the segment here: Since this segment was recorded, the IRS issued guidance that the new rules related to battery and materials sourcing will go into effect in March 2023 when they will &hellip;

Join us as we show off our EVs at this monthly car meet. We usually arrive around 7am so we can park near each other. Look for the EVA flag and join us! If you want to let us know you're coming, you can RSVP here: <https://>

Electric vehicles evs aaron

Transportation Secretary Pete Buttigieg didn't let Rep. Aaron Bean's (R-Fla.) suggestion on electric vehicles slide as he offered a wicked rebuttal at a House Transportation and Infrastructure Committee hearing on Thursday.

"Also, wait until you find out the economic impact that some economists have put at $15 million every hour, or every day, trillions of dollars every year from allowing the environmental conditions in this country and planet to worsen."

Buttigieg, elsewhere in the hearing, checked Rep. Scott Perry (R-Pa.) for questioning Biden administration efforts to back EVs and for claiming there are "de facto" federal mandates to buy them in an industry that's in a "bit of a tailspin."

Contact us for free full report

Web: <https://www.sumthingtasty.co.za/contact-us/>

Email: energystorage2000@gmail.com

WhatsApp: 8613816583346

