

Kuala lumpur power outages

AstroAwani news agency had earlier reported blackouts in Klang Valley locations such as the KLCC, Publika and Ampang Point shopping malls. Bukit Jalil, Bangsar South and Hospital Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia (HUKM) were also reportedly affected.

Public transport operator Rapid KL said at about 1.30pm that the electrical supply disruption had also affected its rail services, in particular, the Ampang-Sri Petaling Light Rail Transit (LRT) line. Services were back to normal by about 2.20pm.

National utility company Tenaga Nasional Berhad (TNB) said power was restored to all affected regions by 3.02pm, about three hours after reports started streaming in of power outages at several places in some states.
