Got the explorer 100 plus: Took forever to charge...definitely not under 2 hour charging time. Also, after about 5 uses, the display no longer works at all. It will still charge my devices, but I have no idea how much juice is left. For the price, I expected better.

Finally, due to procrastination, I purchased my Jackery Explorer 100 Portable Power Station because, we have a power outage since this morning, enabling me to charge my phone quickly and seamlessly. It was easily understandable to put together and charge up. I highly recommend it, and I intend to buy a few more Jackery products.
