Solar light for sale in ghana

Larger pallet couriers will contact you on the day to let you know a rough time for delivery, due to the size and cost, a signature is always required. We always suggest someone is home to accept the delivery, as missing your delivery may result in a re-delivery fee being charged.

If you would like to upgrade your delivery or arrange to split your delivery, you can do this via the help centre. Please note, once your order has begun to be picked at our warehouse, you will not be able to make any further additions.

If you are ordering other in-stock items alongside this, please be aware your shipment will be held until all items are ready to be dispatched. If you would like to arrange a split delivery, please let the team know as soon as your order is confirmed.

Larger pallet couriers will contact you on the day to let you know a rough time for delivery, due to the size and cost, a signature is always required. Small parcel couriers may leave these with a neighbour if no one is home to accept delivery and leave an appropriate calling card if so.

Take advantage of our great credit deals. Spread the cost with 6, 12 and 24-month plans at a fantastic 0% APR. For orders under ?500, no deposit is required. Orders over ?500 require a 10% deposit.

Directly above the bath or shower tray up to a height of 2.25m from the floor. Light fittings installed in this area should be IP44 or higher. If the fitting is 240V a 30ma RCD must be used to protect the circuit.
