While Supreme's main goal remains to act as a trusted B2B distributor providing our customers with a wide range of products and PoS Displays, as we have grown, we have partnered with and launched a comprehensive range of consumer brands.

Established in 2015, 88Vape is now one of the UK's most popular vape brands, providing retailers with great margins and high quality affordable vaping products for consumers.

Since 2009, Liberty Flights has grown into one of the most trusted vape brands in the UK. With an emphasis on the customer, it's developed a strong presence in retail and online.

Launched in 2021, Sealions is an online-only wellness brand, providing high quality and affordable care for the whole family. At the heart of the brand is family and the environment.

Launched in 2021, Zillion disposables have been a huge hit with retailers and customers. Available in two strengths, this "budget" disposable range delivers value over and over again.

Supreme are an authorised distributor of Duracell's reliable, high-performing, longer lasting batteries. As an instantly recognisable consumer brand, they require no introduction.

Energizer has a reputation for high-quality, long lasting batteries. Now we're helping them branch out into Smart Home products, with a focus on quality and affordability.

For almost a century, Panasonic have been a market leader in consumer electronics. But they also manufacture a range of great value batteries for the home and industrial applications.
